Hi Maggie,

Thankyou very much for sharing all of this information. I will ensure that somebody pops in to collect AR's workbooks so we can have a good look at what he has done to date.

Good luck in your new post.

Kind Regards,

Hayley

Attached are updated relevant documents to support Axel's placement with you. The PLP is the most useful illustrating how his motivation has declined this year for many reasons already discussed with you. This will hopefully support your interventions so you can identify improvements as he settles in.

I have all his workbooks from July 2020 which you may find very useful as evidence and see what he does know. I will leave them in school reception and I hope someone will have the time to pick them up.

I will be leaving for a new exciting post next week so if you have any further questions please contact Mrs Hodson.

I wish you well working Axel and I am very grateful that he finally has the specialist support he deserves.
