

KNIFE MARKETING OF CONCERN

LEGAL PROVISIONS

KNIVES ACT 1997

1 Unlawful marketing of knives.

- (1) A person is guilty of an offence if he markets a knife in a way which—
 - (a) indicates, or suggests, that it is suitable for combat; or
 - (b) is otherwise likely to stimulate or encourage violent behaviour involving the use of the knife as a weapon.
 - (2) "Suitable for combat" and "violent behaviour" are defined in section 10.
 - (3) For the purposes of this Act, an indication or suggestion that a knife is suitable for combat may, in particular, be given or made by a name or description—
 - (a) applied to the knife;
 - (b) on the knife or on any packaging in which it is contained; or
 - (c) included in any advertisement which, expressly or by implication, relates to the knife.
 - (4) For the purposes of this Act, a person markets a knife if—
 - (a) he sells or hires it;
 - (b) he offers, or exposes, it for sale or hire; or
 - (c) he has it in his possession for the purpose of sale or hire.
- [F1] (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or to both;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 4 years, or to a fine, or to both.]

10 Interpretation.

In this Act—

"the court" means—

- (a) in relation to England and Wales or Northern Ireland, the Crown Court or a magistrate's court;
- (b) in relation to Scotland, the sheriff;

"knife" means an instrument which has a blade or is sharply pointed;

"marketing" and related expressions are to be read with section 1(4);

"publication" includes a publication in electronic form and, in the case of a publication which is, or may be, produced from electronic data, any medium on which the data are stored;

"suitable for combat" means suitable for use as a weapon for inflicting injury on a person or causing a person to fear injury;

"violent behaviour" means an unlawful act inflicting injury on a person or causing a person to fear injury.

INQUIRIES ACT 2005, section 2

2 No determination of liability

- (1) An inquiry panel is not to rule on, and has no power to determine, any person's civil or criminal liability.
- (2) But an inquiry panel is not to be inhibited in the discharge of its functions by any likelihood of liability being inferred from facts that it determines or recommendations that it makes.

The Inquiry has no power to rule on or determine civil or criminal liability but the following illustrative examples raise reasonable questions about the industry's current interpretation of the legislation and about the enforcement of the Knives Act.

The Cold Steel Frenzy II stands out with its long, lean profile and aggressive cutting capability. Designed for those who appreciate a modern tactical aesthetic without sacrificing real-world performance, this folding knife delivers exceptional slicing power in a refined, lightweight package. At the core of the Frenzy II is a 3.5-inch sheepfoot blade crafted from CPM-3V carbon steel a premium steel renowned for its incredible toughness, edge stability, and resistance to chipping under hard use.

The black-coated finish adds an extra layer of protection against wear and corrosion while giving the blade a stealthy, tactical look. The sheepfoot blade shape excels at controlled slicing and draw cuts, making it ideal for utility tasks where precision matters.

The handle features black G10 construction, offering a perfect balance of strength and lightweight performance. Its slim, elongated design provides a comfortable grip while maintaining a low-profile carry. Textured for enhanced traction, the handle ensures secure handling in all conditions, whether you're working indoors or out in the field.
